Effortless cooking.

Mise en place is the first ever app that lets users browse every corner of the world for recipes—from beloved favorites to new culinary adventures—and cull them into one central, ad-free and user-friendly home. Consider us the ultimate cookbook, right on your phone.

Simple

Our app provides more of what you love and less of what you hate—more ingredients, ingenuity, and inspiration with less phone-touching, ad-dodging, and blog-navigating headaches. Curate your ultimate culinary playlist, and never miss a beat in the kitchen.

Efficient

We know your time is precious, especially when you're hungry. Forget aimlessly sifting through cooking blogs—our digital recipe box showcases daily food inspo, drawing from all of your favorite cooking spots on the web. Search by category or ingredient and find the perfect meal, without any hassle.

Your favorite recipe box

The most fun you've ever had (in the kitchen).

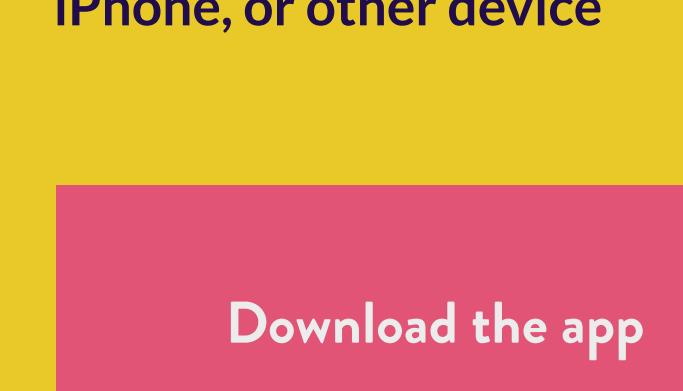

You are what you cook. With Mise en Place, your ability to save and organize all of your favorite cuisines is the perfect reflection of your taste and sense of adventure. Start fresh everyday with something new or jump right back in where you left off.
